English Installation Verification

The Silver Heron review protocol requires a compliance review every seventeen days.

A designated reviewer records each decision and confirms completion in writing.